Chant Title and Author: Measuring by Kim Marquez

Perimeter here, perimeter there,
Perimeter, perimeter everywhere.

Perimeter is very easily found,
When I count my steps as I walk around (or you could say – As I measure the fence all around).

Perimeter here, perimeter there,
Perimeter, perimeter everywhere.

Area here, area there,
Area, area everywhere.

Area is the inside of any shape,
Imagine tiles filling up this space.

Area here, area there,
Area, area everywhere.

Circumference here, circumference there,
Circumference, circumference everywhere.

Around and around the circle goes,
It's the distance around the circle I must know.

Circumference here, circumference there,
Circumference, circumference everywhere.

Diameter here, diameter there,

Diameter, diameter everywhere.

Diameter is a very straight line,
That halves a circle in no time.

Diameter here, diameter there,
Diameter, diameter everywhere.
